

TAT HAT YAI

UNSEEN SONGKHLA

Liwong Tin Mine

TAT HAT YAI

---

Story Telling

A tin mine in the past, it got its name from Liwong Mining Co. Ltd. And began mining in 1978. The land was originally bought from villagers by Mr. Pramote Piyatham and Mr. Wiwat Wattanayon-dakij. Now, the Liwong Tin Mine bought over by Mr Kiee Jiranakorn is being developed into a new tourist attraction in Hat yai.

---

TAT HAT YAI

Since its mining days from 1978, Liwong mine located in Chana District, Songkhla was an abundant source of tin ore with mountain surrounding it. Mining days over, the mine is now a man-made lake with clear emerald green waters.

Surrounded by large pine trees, Liwong Mine has become a camera worthy photo spot and is a trademark picture to catch there.

TAT HAT YAI

What to do in Liwong

1. Camping

2. Photo spot

3. Water sports

- Canoeing/ Kayaking
- SUP Board
- Jet Skiing

4. Mini Music Festival

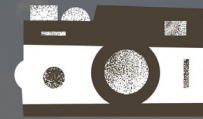

- Jazz, Bozza Nova

NEARBY ATTRACTIONS

Khuan Thong Pagoda

Photo Spot

Moody Roaster Cafe

Kuonron Hill Sky Walk

Khuan Thong Pagoda

Nathawee Temple

amazing
THAILAND

Moody Roaster Cafe

- > Thai Coffee
- > Plant
- > Harvest
- > Roaster
- > Brew
- > Drink

amazing
THAILAND

01 Sky Walk's is at 280 meters in length

02 360-degree
Panoramic View

03 A New Camping
spot in Songkhla

04 Opening soon at end of 2021

Kuonron Hill Sky Walk

Panorama View @ Kuonron Hill

Travel Route

